An Interesting Group of Medals

AWARDED TO

ABRAHAM BOULGER

(late Lieut.-Colonel, 84th, The York and Lancaster Regiment.)

- (1) The Victoria Cross.
- (2) Defence of Lucknow.
- (3) Egypt 1882, one bar—Tel-el-Kebir.
- (4) Khedive's Bronze Star.
- (5) Long Service Medal.

. The records of this hero may be summed up in three words: seventy-six days' battle. From the date of departure of Havelock's force from Allahabad for the relief of Lucknow on July 12, 1857, to its entry on September 25, it is only the shadow of an exaggeration to say that Abraham Boulger was not daily engaged with the enemy either in pitched battle with his regiment or as a scout and skirmisher—always in advance. Twelve actions were fought, in all of which he took part. In Lucknow he stormed a bridge, and was the first man to enter a masked battery. His rank in 1857 and the rank which he now holds is sufficient indication of his meritorious service and successful career. After serving for years as Sergeant-Major he became Quartermaster in 1872, and, after taking part in the storming of Tel-el-Kebir, retired as Lieutenant-Colonel in November 1887.
